

Phan Thiet - tourist heaven

Overview

Phan Thiet is a small lovely city belonged to Binh Thuan province. There are not many choices here but this area is always looked like as a home of some of the most beautiful and the most visited attraction. Phan Thiet charms the people's heart by its clean and tranquil beauty. Nature and people seem to be gentle and friendly.

The fun

The attraction of Phan Thiet is the beaches and the vast sand dunes with lined coconut trees. To the east of Phan Thiet there are some quiet beaches, one of the greatest attractions in the region, such as: Ba Rang, Mui Ne... Phan Thiet is totally different from one another. Beside some interesting places as: more hundred-years lighthouse, White lake, Hoang Ngoc Resort, Phan Thiet Golf, Suoi Tre - like as Elysium, the ancient temples and pagodas... travelers coming to Phan Thiet can visit unique red sandy hills.

Travelers visiting Phan Thiet like to not only taste fresh seafoods in clean and fresh restaurants, but also discover the delicious fruits here. Some people say that: if you have never tried to taste Nuoc Mam Phan Thiet - one kind of special sauces only made of sea fishes in Phan Thiet, it means that you never travel to Phan Thiet.

The unexpected

Phan Thiet is a city developed by tourist, so if you are foreign traveler, the advice for you is that you should get Vietnam visa on arrival at Ho Chi Minh city airport and take care when buying goods, or souvenirs here (you can be bought counterfeit goods or have to buy with more money than local inhabitants). Anyway, everything is in great condition. It is a bit windy by the sea water is quite warm. And it sure that visiting Phan Thiet, you will seem to feel like that you are lost in the heaven place.

Although Phan Thiet has some red sand dunes but it is looked like "Da Lat in desert" in Viet Nam thanks to wonderful resorts in Phan Thiet, the long beautiful and cool beaches... Then it is luckier if you visit Phan Thiet in Lunar Festival times.

Insider point of view

Vietnamese choose Phan Thiet for their vacations because they want to exchange the tension of the noisy traffic and trade of the city with the comfort a hotel room right on the beach and a hearty appetite of succulent seafood. Some people say that: "No doubt as Vietnam develops, so will Phan Thiet".

Mui Ne has long been considered the "Hawaii" of Vietnam. It boasts shady roads under coconut trees, a beautiful beach and cliffs battered by the waves of the sea. The typical scenery of Mui Ne lies in the moving lines of golden sand caused by the wind and when they are seen from afar they look like moving waves. The scenery looks more fascinating at dawn, when young Cham girls in green dresses go to work. That's why no photographer fails to visit this area. Mui Ne has a big potential for tourism. Therefore, many companies and investors have established co-operation ties with local authorities. There are the Hai Duong Company of France and Binh Thuan Province; Victoria, a joint venture with a French Corporation, capitalized at USD 3 million; Pamera of the Ukraine, and Bamboo Tourism of overseas

Vietnamese living in the United States. Apart from Hai Duong and Victoria resorts, which were established in 1994 and 1996 respectively, Saigonmuine was put into operation in October 1999. Several weeks after its inauguration, the resort had many guests. In late December, 1999 it did not have enough rooms for all the visitors who wished to stay. Mui Ne is an ideal place for rest and relaxation. Visitors can certainly enjoy swimming in the blue water of the sea, climbing the sand dunes or relaxing by a swimming pool. In fact, this oasis enters people of all ages, and furthermore, provides an endless inspiration to the artists' creation.
